About Me

With more than 3 years of experience in UX/UI design, I have created quality digital products and services.

My true passion lies in interactive design, where I seek to ensure an exceptional final experience for users. I am always guided by fundamental design principles such as usability, accessibility, consistency, visual hierarchy, simplicity, inclusiveness, and equality.

I am constantly up-to-date and open to continuous learning, as I understand that the world and technology are advancing at a dizzying pace.

I love collaborating in efficient and collaborative teams, assuming my role responsibly. No matter the scope of your project, I'm here to help. If you are facing a challenge, contact me
